

Money Matters $

To ensure that participation in this weekend is available to everyone interested, the weekend's expenses are covered primarily through a "free-will offering" approach.

Please include a cheque for $70 with your advance registration. During the closing service on Sunday morning, participants will be asked to help defray the costs of this event through a private free-will offering. Our total cost per participant is expected to be $180.00, for accommodation, meals, snacks and materials. We invite each participant to contribute as he is able and feels led.

In cases where parishes wish to financially support the participation of one or more individuals, the FLAME committee will provide equivalent funds to match that assistance. If appropriate, please explore this possibility with your Priest or Minister.

This year FLAME is at:
Ermitage Ste Croix

Our Speaker

Archbishop Terry and his wife Blanche were brought up in Simcoe, Ontario. He was a server in the local Anglican Church and in his late teens felt a strong call to ministry, and mentored by the local priest. He saw young Anglicans talking about Jesus at Church Army meetings and he wanted to tell people about Jesus. This led to Terry going to the Church Army Training College in Toronto at the age of 20. He graduated and was commissioned as a lay evangelist. He connected with the Bishop of the Arctic when trying to find out where he should serve, and while considering studying theology at Wycliffe College in Toronto leading to the priesthood. He was prepared to serve in the Arctic if that was where God wanted him. This Bishop proposed he come to the Arctic and study for ordination under him, and thus began a lifetime in the Arctic. He and Blanche moved to the Arctic in 1966 to begin 50 years in the North.

He was ordained deacon and priest in 1973. They served in the parishes of Holman, Cambridge Bay, Fort Simpson and Inuvik and then moved to Fort Nelson in the Diocese of the Yukon, before returning to the Arctic and the parish of Yellowknife.

In 1993, Terry was elected Suffragan Bishop of the Arctic and in 1995 Bishop of the Diocese of the Yukon. In 2005, he was elected as Metropolitan of the Ecclesiastical Province of British Columbia and the Yukon and one of the four metropolitans, or regional senior bishops, of the Anglican Church of Canada. He and Blanche live in Whitehorse YT. He retired in 2010. He is 76 years old.

He and Blanche have four grown children and six grandchildren.

Man Alive!

Archbishop Terry is going to open us to a deeper relationship with our Lord Jesus Christ by sharing his biblical insights along with many years of ministry. That relationship is key to our walk with the Lord. It must continue to grow and be strengthened by daily personal and corporate study of the scriptures, daily prayer, regular church attendance and sacrificial giving.

The focus of the teaching will be from St. Paul's the letter to the Ephesians with particular focus on the enabling power of the Holy Spirit to be the people/men of God/The Church of God. We can only come to our full potential as men, as God's men, as we are empowered by the Holy Spirit--

MEN ALIVE! --each of as a -- MAN ALIVE!

We invite you to pray with us, every day, for God's blessing and inspiration upon Terry. Let us also pray that the Holy Spirit encourage and prepare those men who will join us in fellowship..
